

Do Bali solar shades really work?

Bali Solar Shades protect your rooms from sun damage without blocking your view--and they look good doing it. With a uniquely engineered see-through design that brings the outdoors in all day, solar shades filter out both sunlight and damaging UV rays from your home.

What are Bali exterior solar shades?

Bali Exterior Solar Shades turn your indoor and outdoor spaces into sun-shaded sanctuaries. Capable of blocking sunlight before it enters your home, exterior solar shades control temperatures even better than their interior counterparts. Combined with UV protection and glare management, your home stays protected in more ways than one.

Are Bali solar shades certified?

All Bali solar shade materials offered are certified with the GREENGUARD Indoor Air Quality Certified®; Fabrics certification. Solar textiles vary in composition based on style, most consist of blends containing one or more of the following: polyester, polypropylene, vinyl, PVC or PET recycled polyester.

What is the best type of shade for a Bali home?

Dark fabrics with high openness percentages offer the best views, while light fabrics with low openness percentages provide the most protection from the sun's heat and UV rays. For nighttime privacy, consider combining solar and roller shades in a Bali Dual Shade or layering with drapery.

Can you use Bali solar & roller shades on patio doors?

Bali Solar & Roller Shades can be used on patio doors by creating smooth, sliding panels out of the same fabric. This system is ideal for tall or wide windows and can be operated as both continuous-loop lift or cordless lift, for ultra-smooth, quiet operation.

Why should you choose Bali dual shades for nighttime privacy?

The same technology that allows you to see from your darker indoor rooms to the brighter outdoors during the day will allow your neighbors to see into your brighter rooms at night. So, for nighttime privacy, combine custom solar and roller shades in Bali Dual Shades or layer with our custom drapery for privacy (and depth and variety!).

Bali is a premier provider of stylish and functional solar shades for the home. Bali roller shades are versatile and available in a variety of colors, fabrics and styles. (877) 702-5463 free samples
