How do I price check items in EVE Online?

To price check items in EVE Online,find the items you want to check and copy themusing CTRL +A,CTRL +C. Then,paste them into the input box on Evepraisal and submit. You will see a price breakdown of all the items. Evepraisal supports various input formats like contracts,cargo scan results,etc.

What happens if someone sees a probe in Eve?

If they see probes they'll know to look in signatures,but if you return an hour later they'll have no clue whether you're running a scannable site,an escalation,or are bouncing belts. PVE content in Eve,excepting the Triglavian content,is old.

What's going on with Eve & CCP?

PVE content in Eve, excepting the Triglavian content, is old. Currently CCP is focusing on group activities - you can make a lot of ISK running the invasion content but the conduits are designed for fleets - not solo. The corp I joined as a new player held a weekly mission running event for new players.

When an NPC is killed by a player, the player who did the most damage to it gets ownership of any loot containers that may drop and of the wreck left behind by that NPC. The only exception to that are NPCs in missions, their wrecks and dropped containers are always assigned to the character that accepted the mission the NPCs are part of ...

Throughout the whole process, I was using mining crystals type A 1 with a modulated strip miner tech 2 mounted on an exhumer. I was keeping the hold empty to avoid any loss by having no room. You mined 3208 units of Omber with a lost residue of 0 units. This was repeated multiple times until the asteroid was depleted. But the ne...
