

Michigan deq storm water plan weatherproof enclosure solid waste containers

What types of storm water permits are available in Michigan?

As a result of the federal regulations governing storm water discharges, the State of Michigan began issuing permit coverage in 1994. There are three types of permits available in Michigan: a general permit, a general permit with monitoring requirements, or a site specific individual permit.

What are Michigan's stormwater programs?

Stormwater programs The goal of Michigan's Stormwater Programs is to protect and preserve Michigan's water resources through pollution prevention measures. EGLE works to accomplish this goal through a two-step process. First, EGLE has been authorized by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency to manage a stormwater discharge permit program.

How many facilities in Michigan have industrial stormwater discharge authorization?

There are approximately 4,000 facilities operating in Michigan with industrial stormwater discharge authorization. Michigan's industrial stormwater permit authorization requires facilities to have an industrial stormwater certified operator who has supervision over the stormwater treatment and control measures at the facility.

Does Egle have a stormwater discharge permit program?

First, EGLE has been authorized by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency to manage a stormwater discharge permit program. Second, EGLE is implementing a compliance assistance approach to the permit program. The goal of Michigan's Storm Water Programs is to protect and preserve Michigan's water resources through pollution prevention measures.

What types of NPDES permits are available in Michigan?

There are three types of NPDES permits authorizing the discharge of industrial stormwater available in Michigan: a general permit, a general permit that includes authorization for discharges from special use areas, or a site-specific individual permit.

Do I need a visual assessment of stormwater discharges?

Conducting visual assessments of stormwater discharges from areas of industrial activity is required for all facilities in Michigan with industrial stormwater permit coverage. The visual assessment is required to be conducted by the facility's Industrial Stormwater Certified Operator.

For each material listed the SWPPP shall include the ways in which each type of material has been or has reasonable potential to become exposed to storm water (e.g. spillage ...

Control of hazardous wastes in Michigan is accomplished through a set of interrelated actions. These include managing the generation, treatment, storage and disposal of hazardous wastes, licensing and regulating hazardous and ...

Michigan deq storm water plan weatherproof enclosure solid waste containers

Michigan's 2007 Solid Waste Policy presented a fundamentally different approach to making solid waste management decisions. It promoted the bold, new perspective of viewing waste ...

This plan must describe how the facility will minimize the amount of pollutants entering into storm water runoff. There must also be a DEQ- certified operator at the facility ...

Solid Waste Planning Website. County solid waste planning details are found under the headings "Import/Export Authorizations" and "Currently Approved County Plans and ...

In addition to ensuring that waste disposal practices are protective of the public and environment, we promote a systematic approach to using/reusing resources productively and sustainably throughout their life cycles, from the point of ...

Michigan's strategy for scheduling permit reissuance is known as the "5-Year Basin Plan." This is a timetable for reissuance of permits and associated COCs based on receiving ...

The Kent County Solid Waste Management Plan works toward the goal of utilizing 50% of the Municipal Solid Waste (MSW) generated in Kent County by 2015, as defined by ...

The locally-approved amendment to the Wexford County Solid Waste Management Plan (Plan Amendment) received by the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) on ...

Part 115, Solid Waste Management, of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act, 1994 PA 451, as amended (NREPA). The statute and administrative rules are ...

The Department of Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy (EGLE) has numerous forms available to the public. To view a specific form or template, you can search by typing in the form name or number in the search bar, and then select the ...

4) Storm water discharge points (which include outfalls and points of discharge), numbered or otherwise labeled for reference 5) Location of storm water and non-storm water ...

the Gladwin County Solid Waste Management Plan (Plan) on February 5, 2002. Except ... authorized for inclusion in a solid waste management plan. The DEQ approval of the ...

For approximately 20 years before implementing a watershed-based permitting approach in the Rouge River watershed, the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality ...

Michigan deq storm water plan weatherproof enclosure solid waste containers

The accumulated storm water in the secondary containment may be discharged in the same manner as previously described. In addition, if the SWPPP procedures for testing ...

DEQ is the lead agency for developing and implementing the Commonwealth's statewide program to protect water quality and quantity from stormwater runoff. The agency ...

Tiffany Wilson 517-256-1425 WilsonT15@Michigan.gov; Industrial Stormwater permitting. Karen Gutting, 517-898-4136 GuttingK1@Michigan.gov; Industrial Stormwater compliance. Ryan Grant, 616-250-6134 GrantR3@Michigan.gov; ...

on storm water runoff from the site. If storm water collected in the containment is discharged to surface waters of the state, storm water permit coverage is required. Prior to ...

Community Water Supply oversees the primary EPA program that sets forth minimum standards for safe drinking water as well as administering the requirements of Michigan's Safe Drinking ...

The goal of Michigan's Stormwater Programs is to protect and preserve Michigan's water resources through pollution prevention measures. EGLE works to accomplish this goal through a two-step process. First, EGLE has been ...

Web: <https://bardzyndzalek.olsztyn.pl>

Michigan deq storm water plan weatherproof enclosure solid waste containers

