Do you need a poweroak between a solar panel & power Oak?

Just to be clear, you don't need anything between the solar panel and the poweroak, just the extension leads, male to female, female to male. Since my Renogy solar panel arrived (100 watts flexible) I tested it on the 24th and 25th of June @26C midday with a cloudless sky. I was getting 55/60 watts charge in those perfect conditions.
