What is a vingli solar cover reel?

VINGLI Pool Cover Reel Set Pool Solar Cover Reel for Inground Swimming... Manual solar cover reels are the most common type of reel on the market, and they function just as their name suggests. By hand. The wheel or crank on the side of the contraption is forcefully turned to roll or unroll the solar cover whenever in use.

How do solar cover reels work?

Automatic solar cover reels turn an otherwise manual reel into an electric-powered, automated reel system. The hand-crank is replaced with an electric motor that activates rotation in both directions with the press of a button. These tend to be a little slower than doing it by hand, but it's infinitely more satisfying to use.
