

What is the best outdoor solar lamp post & planter?

Hot of the heels of our top pick, the Gama Sonic Outdoor Solar Lamp Post and Planter. The Gama Sonic and the Sterno Home have similar retro stylings and are made of similar materials. The Gama Sonic is constructed of weather-resistant and rust-resistant cast aluminum with a powder-coated black finish and beveled glass panes.

Which solar lamp post is best?

The Sterno Home solar lamp post is our top pick because of its solidity of its cast aluminum construction, solar cells' power and battery life, upgraded LED light, and its pleasant retro-inspired finish. 2. Runner up - Gama Sonic 106BPLSG0 Outdoor Solar Lamp Post and Planter

Which solar lamppost is right for You?

Anything that emits light in the darkness is going to attract attention, and if you're looking for a lamppost that combines great aesthetics with excellent performance, then the Westcharm 3-Head LED Solar Lamp Post is a great choice.

What's new in the Sterno home solar lamp post?

Compared to the first generation, the light in the Sterno Home solar lamp post has been made brighter, and it has two additional solar panels. These upgrades mean the lamp charges to full during the day and provides bright light for eight hours once night falls.

Why should you buy a sterno home solar lamp post?

Intelligent brightness- The Sterno Home solar lamp post detects the local light conditions and turns the light on and off at dusk and dawn to preserve the battery power. The vintage look - The classic design and wrought iron stylings give the lamp post a pleasant retro-inspired look.

Are solar lamp posts Green?

There is still an environmental impact associated with the manufacture of solar lamp posts, so they aren't entirely green. Solar lamp posts are environmentally friendly and don't add to your utility bills. You'll need to fit the pole yourself, which can be complicated and time-consuming, especially if you're fitting it into concrete.
